III. DISCUSSION ITEMS

Dr. Zimmerman mentioned that the ASO Hands & Heart Pantry Retreat is July 12th at 10:00A.M.-2:00P.M.

A consensus to speak with Sharon Dalmage was generated to finalize a Palmdale Campus Meeting. Group also discussed that the purpose of having a Palmdale Campus congregation was to involve students enrolled in summer courses at Antelope Valley College as well as marketing open positions within ASO. Plans to generate emails and flyers for open ASO representative positions and our Palmdale Campus meeting (along with date being set on Thursday July 19th ) was agreed upon. Meeting Time is TBA

IV. ACTION ITEMS

4.1 ASO Appointments

Group discussion regarding addition of representative members and student participation was shared as well as ways to reach out to students enrolled in summer school courses. A consensus to postpone appointments was reached after decisions to better market and advise students of ASO and the participation it presents.

Dr. Zimmerman advised group that VP of Student Services was filled amongst administration and therefore, ASO needs to fill that position on their Executive Board.

4.2 ASO Goals for summer and fall 2012

A discussion regarding the furtherance of healthcare services was commenced. Group decided that an effort to explain what students are paying into should be continuously updated. Student Trustee shared that efforts to remedy students feeling that AVC is a ghetto campus should be researched further and strategically approached to better campus pride.

The group concluded that Palmdale Campus meeting should be a great start to increase participation and visibility on campus.
